

Worldly vs Biblical View of Success

Where do you stand on each success value continuum in the Worldly vs Biblical View chart below? Reflect on where you tend to stand most of the time in your daily life that is filled with choices and decisions.

How much are you willing to sacrifice to remain wherever you are? Remember that every choice and every decision have consequences. Reflect on the consequence or consequences if you choose to remain where you currently stand in each continuum.

Worldly vs Biblical View of Success

Analyze the results including the consequences of remaining where you currently stand and think about any actions to take to achieve results that are more pleasing to God. What will you start doing? What will you stop doing? What will you change?
